Opera Theatre Goes to School 2018

Martile Rowland
Founder/Artistic Director

Since it's Cairo premier in 1871, Verdi's masterpiece Aida has continued to be one of the most popular operas of all time, drawing crowds with great spectacle, famous music and a war-torn love triangle that has melted hearts around the globe. Set in ancient Egypt and full of drama and grandeur, Aida is a fabulous introduction to the opera world for any age.

2018

Opera Theatre Goes to School Class Requirements & Benefits

1. Attend ONE four-hour evening class on Tuesday, March 6, 2018 (dinner served).
2. Incorporate opera into your classroom (content integration methods provided).
3. Sign up to host a live in-school preview workshop with our touring singers. (Limited space available).
4. Bring at least 10 students to the live evening performance May 9, UCCS Ent Center for the Performing Arts. (Student passes $5/each! Participating teacher tickets are free!).
5. Complete a Course/Program Evaluation.

Participating teachers who complete all course elements receive a signed certificate for 15 contact hours (1 credit) from Opera Theatre of the Rockies. Teachers may also register for a D11 "In Service Credit" for an additional charge, payable to D11. Information about the D11 credit process will be posted on our website as it becomes available.
